Cherry Treats for February Holidays

Cherry Cream Crunch Really is a special dessert that can be served on Valentine's Day because of its lovely red color or on any of the patriotic holidays. It is a luscious sweet ending to a meal and can be prepared hours. before serving time. Simply overwrap the cooled baked dish with transparent plastic wrap to keep the moisture in and air out during refrigeration.

It's fun to surprise the family with something special for dinner on a special occasion . . and the month of February is tailor-made for celebrating There are the familiar birthday anniversaries of America's two great patriots Lincoln's on Feb 12 and Washington's on Feb 22 But the month has more special days worth remembering and for which canned cherries can bring the festive glow to meals either patriotic or sentimental in theme

National Freedom Day tomorrow commemorates the Civil War president's 1865 proposal for an antislavery amendment to the constitution Feb 15 is the birth date of the great feminist, Susan B Anthony, who fought long and hard for the women's vote.

Then there is Feb 14, the never-to-be-forgotten day for hearts and flowers . . . Valentine 5 Day . . . a wonderful occasion for a special dessert to win a man's heart all over again.

Actually these February desserts are excellent ways to impress card club members and dinner guests. Each one is guaranteed to start a recipe swapping session. None are designed for holiday decor in themselves . . they are just plain wonderful eating . . . the party theme can be set with table decorations according to the day celebrated

Another important role for homemakers on a budget is that canned cherries both Wisconsin's important red and tart pitted varieties and the sweet dark ace a good buy at the time of year Available in quantity. Ia it season's pack probably can be found among store specials from now on into the next growing season

So here's to a month chock full of days for creative cooks, and hostesses to latch onto with recipes to match.

Above Is a Marvelous Cobbler made from canned pitted dark sweet cherries that's topped with light tender drop biscuits. It makes a delightful dessert and goes well with light cream, dairy sour cream or a small scoop of vanilla ice cream, if desired.

Either Plump Light Canned Cherries such as the Royal Annes or deep dark red Bings or Lamberts may be used for this Cherry Parfait Sauce that gives a boost to feathery light Angel Food cake wedges. The juice drained from the cherries is used for part of the liquid in the gelatin mixture that has a touch of grated orange peel added. Then the sweet cherries and whipped sour cream are folded into the gelatin.

'End Play' Gets Help From Foe

Forcing an opponent to help you is often called an "end play" because it usually takes place near the end of the hand. Keep your ears open in case opportunity knocks earlier

Declarer won the first trick with the ace of bearts, ruffed a heart, and led a trump to the ace. The bad trump break produced a smile from West and a naughty word from South

Declarer took the king of spades and gave West his trump trick whe eupon West got out safely by leading the queen of hearts. South ruffed and led out the rest of his trumps.

West threw away his hearts a club and the queen of diamonds Goes Wrong

The elever diamond discard led South astray He led a diamond thinking that West would have to win and return clubs up to the ace queen Instead East overtook the nine of diamonds with the ten and led a club through South

Declarer had to lose a club trick as well as another diamond Down one

Please don't call me up in the middle of the night to say that South could have made the contract at the end Yes South could have led the ace and queen of clubs forcing West to win and lead diamonds to the king

We have nothing but sympathy for South at the end. He was hood worked by a very pretty diseard. But South waited too long for his end-play, he was asleep at the first trick.

Declarer should allow West to win the first trick with the king of hearts. What can West do to keep out of trouble?

If West continues with a low heart declarer wins a finesse with dummy s jack. If West leads anything else. South gets a free finesse.

West can save himself only by tearing up the cards, which many hosts consider imposite Daily Question

Care for Eggs

The egg storage racks in the door of a refrigerator provide the best storage temperature for fresh eggs Store eggs large-end up. This keeps the yolks center ed and the whites from breaking down. Eggs should not be washed until ready to use. Washing removes the protective film that helps to retain moisture and fla yor.

A FRESH ORANGE is a fine thing to include in your child a school lunch, but he may object to the rather difficult and messy peeling job Solve it for him by accoring the skin of the orange about five times, vertically He sloudd be able to remove the sections easily and neatly.

A Four-Floor, $1.25 Million Addition to the Outagamie County courthouse won the backing of the county board's public property and insurance committee Wednesday. The proposed addition, which would double the square footage of floor space of the original building, will line up with the present north wing on Seventh Street and connect with the courthouse annex, which fronts on Elm Street. Architect's plans were prepared by George Narovec and Associates A fifth floor, shown in the sketch, is not included in the $1.25 million, but could be added at a future date

The Architect's Sketch of the Third floor of the proposed addition to the Outagamie County courthouse shows plans for a new county courtroom, a new register in probate department a new probate court an unassigned room which could be used as a new clerk of court's office plus several auxiliary 100ms. The shaded areas show existing space on the third floor of the main courthouse building and the roof of the annex building which has two floors and a basement faction is the so-called five per cent "floor" on all deductions Whether it be a charitable contribution the interest on one t house mortgage losses sustained that are not covered by insurance or even allowance for state income and property taxes paid, the fact remains that the new rules would deprive many taxpayers of a part of the deductions enjoyed almost since the day when the present income tax laws and regulations were first written. A person who made out his will years ago now faces some substantial changes which will mean! he will leave his wife or children less money than had been con-WASHINGTON - It may take templated. Why should a legal a little while before the new document drawn up years ago as facts of tax lite sink in and when a trust for instance suddenly be affected by a retroactive tax

Humas Habits

To cut through human habits' and customs and revolutionize. then on the laws that this is a desirable tax reform is to dam age the party in power. The planned deficit policy will be vigorously debated. While the average man may feel the subject is over his head the chances are for the individual, the psycholo, that after all the hullabaloo about go that will prevail as that the tax reductions of he winds up government is giving something with tax savings of only a few with one hind and taking it away cents a week-as the government goes into the red by many billions,

For if the proposed tax plan cut in taxes the person who goes through there will be many makes out a return will have the individuals who will be adversely feeling that somehow the govern affected and many non-profit in ment though reducing his tax stitutions will find it hard sled rate is trying to get nearly all of ding. Tax rules operate in so back by a penalizing system many different sectors that there of amendments to the tax jules are bound to be some who benefit The biggest source of dissatis or who are not materially affected Gratitude in political life however, is less important than dissatisfaction. Those who are hurt will be vocal. Those who will be moderately benefitted will be indifferent

> The Administration's gamble is that there will be more money, over-all to spend and that this will bring prosperity and thus de : crease unemployment. But there s a difference between a "planned. deficit such as is being proposed and those deticits of the past which came naturally as the busi ness curve turned downward. Deliberately to plan to put the government into the red by many billlions serves notice on evelybody. It means that somehow there has to be a psychology of spending rather than saving on the rew tax reductions. But the confusion that may result from the lar reaching penalties that the new! tax law would impose could cause ia period of hesitation in the economy which would be costly all

> Economic discontent has swung many an election away from the incombent. William Howard Taft was elected in 1968 on a wave of prosperity and he got one of the biggest majorities in the elector al college up to that time. He was a jovial good natured man who was extremely popular when he was inaugurated in March 1909. But less than two years dive after he signed a tariff bill that failed to cut down the cost of Eving. It was the key issue of the times. His party was split and he was defeated in 1912

> Low Point Harry Truman in 1946 was at the low point of his political that gave the Republicans control of both houses. This was due to the high cost of food because of delays in removing lprice controls after World War II refaction and won hy a narrow margin of popular votes in 1948 verse impact of policies or voter discortent. Herbert Hoover was 1928 Catalying almost every north ern state and some sou hern states. But in 1930 his party lost control of Congress and n 1932 Mr. Hoover was the victim of a landslide due to the depression The bird had bit le to do win its origin as the whole world was in volved in an economic readjust. ment but the voters took their Ignevances out on his Adminis

Before He Slept

Robert Frost became America's true poet laureate long before he was honored at the inauguration of President Kennedy two years ago As a poet he spoke with that strange mixture of the individual idealist dealing in practical matters which has been the dream if not always the accomplishment of most Americans since the struggle to form a nation

Frost was an optimist but not a blind one In Once By The Pacific he warned that the lights might really all go out but in other poems he looked at man, as he looked at nature with a tolerance for differences for varying aims and aberrations. Something has to be left to God he wrote of the orchard left alone in the winter after man has done everything possible for its safety "Something there is that doesn't like a wall' he chided the old farmer who resolutely put back the stone. But in The Tuft of Flowers he reminded all that

"'Men work together' I told him from the "Whether they work together or apart""

'We love the things we love for what they are," he wrote in expressing his deep reverence for the beauty of life. And probably no one has better expressed the searching for a place in the scope of things than Frost did in two of his best known

"Two roads diverged in a wood and I---I took the one less traveled by, And that has made all the difference."

"My object in living is to unite My avocation and my vocation As my two eves make one in sight. Only where love and need are one, And the work is play for mortal stakes, Is the deed ever really done For Heaven and the future's sake."

Closing County Colleges

In announcing that his budget would not include appropriations for the courty teachers colleges and that he would voto any such addition by the Legislature Governor Reynolds has sought to make the legislators do something about converting the county colleges into better educational institutions. Such action has been unanimously recommended by the Coordinating Committee for Higher Education including the votes of the representatives from the coun-

The problem is that the county colleges do serve a purpose for a very small segment of Wisconsin students at a time when educational opportunities are getting tighter and more and more teachers are needed It may seem inconsistent for the Coordinating Committee to moan that more funds are needed for facilities for the increased number of students at the same time they want to slam shut the doors of the county colleges. But the decision involved quality rather than quantity

In the past the county colleges have served W consin well. At first they offered one year's instruction to eighth grade graduates to enable them to teach in the state elementary school. The program vaslater changed to two years of college for high school graduates. Thousands of W. consin men and wonen graduated from the county colleges and went into teaching or on to other institutions for more study

But is the deminds for subject matter increased the county colleges became anachronistic. In accentive are graduates of the two year program which also used to be offered at the state conleges, were eligible to teach only in common school districts. Graduates were also permitted to enter the elementary education program at the state colleges but had to teach at least one year in addition in order to be certified with lower qualifications than their city cousins. This was a political compromise to meet the increasing demands among educators for higher educational requirements and the reluctance of rural legislators to close the county colleges. The emphasis in the two year program is upon teaching methods with not much time left over for added subject matter. As grade school children expand their horizons today with science foreign language and new ways of learning arithmetic the teachers have had to expand their knowledge too. While we readily concede that there is something lost in personal attention and development of the individual by the trend away from the one room schools it has not been increased or better taught subject matter

While the Coordinating Committee is making plans to expand the extensions of the university and the state colleges so that the first two years of a college education will be made available to more commuting students, there have to be studies made of population changes other facilities. which are available and the local demand Obviously if the county college facilities can be converted and used for this purpose both the particular area and general costs will be helped. But so far it has not been possible to a sure each county college that it will continue in another form. In fact quite obviously some will be closed.

But dragging the matter out and spend ing money upon inadequate educational opportunities isn't sensible. Governor Rev. nolds may make no new friends by his arbitrary decision to force the Logi lature to act but he is right Ecchaps there is a more roundabout was of improving education such as an immediate four year requirement for tell hers. But since the Leg. islature also has frowned upon this maneuver the Governor may be forced to follow through in bringing about the demise of the coun's colleges

Dam Raising At Gresham Gets Approval

Isaak Walton League Had Been Opposed To Village Project

MADISON - Over the opposi tion of some local residents and the Wisconsin division of the Izaak Walton League the Public Service Commission has granted the request of the village of Gresham in Shawano County authority to raise and enlarge the Gresham dam on the Red River in the Purpose of the project is to increase the capacity of the hydroelectric generating plant at the site. The commission has also approved the installation of the requested generation facilities

Predaces Power

The Gresham dam was origin ally authorized more than 75 years ago, by act of the legislature and is used for the producton of power by the municipal electric utility. The commission approved a repair and reconstruction project in 1957 and another raising and enlarging three years.

The commission said the plan is to raise the water level in the pool from 100.6 feet to 103 feet That it is necessary to establish a minimum pool level at 102 feet for the preservation of fish habitat and recreational value

No impoundment

The commission noted that the nearest dam upstream is at Phlox and that there is no impoundment downstream from Gresham in the

The dam raising estimated to cost $10,200 will not materially obstruct existing pavigation or violate other public rights the commission ruled

The tusing of the dam will produce an additional 200 000 kilowatt hours of energy yearly for the utility which is also supplied by diesel generation units, and huvs some power from the Wisconsin Power and Light Co.

$1.25 Million Addition to Courthouse Wins Backing

Public Property Committee Will Recommend Four-Floor Structure to County Board

Outagamie county may construct a million-and a-quarter-dollar eddition to its courthouse

The board of supervisors, public property and insurance commit tee today approved plans for the addition and will recommend the proposal at the Feb. 12 meeting of the full board.

Architect's plans prepared by George Narovec and Associates called for four floors and a basement which would line up with the present north wing on Seventh Street and would connect with the courthouse annex which fronts on Elm Street

Narovec said this morning that the proposed addition would double the square footage of floor space of the courthouse building

Included in the blueprints submitted by Narovec are plans for a fifth floor which could be added at some future date. The architect's cost estimate of $1.25 million, however, does not include the

The basement floor would be for mechanical equipment and

Plans call for the sheriff's department, an entrance, an entrance lobbs and a garage on the ground floor. The second floor purpose has been unassigned for the time being according to committee spokesman

A third county courtroom would be constructed on the third floor The same floor also would include auxiliary courtroom space and possible new quarters for the clerk of courts office.

Space for Huber Law prisoners would be on the fourth floor This would include dormitories and kitchen facilities

Jail Facilities Future plans for a fifth floor would be for maximum detention Supy J Joseph Cummings (Appleton 3rd Suggested it this morn mes committee session that bids be taken for the construction be fore the county floats a bond issue. That way he said we'll definitely know the cost involved before we sell any bonds.

Cummings suggested that the committee's resolution be taken to the February county board session and that Naroyee be present to explain the plans and possible cost factors

Everything piles up handsomely in a Chevy II including savings

Imagine a low-loading wagon roomy enough to handle most anything you can heft-and still trim enough to slip into cramped parking spots. We imagined it, built it and called it Chevy II. Made it as dependable as a wagon can get. And made it so it ll keep piling up savings for you over the years. Those show up in the way the engines (you have your choice of a 6 or 4 in most models) put the squeeze on gas. They grow with upkeep-cutters like the brakes that adjust Keeps Going Great themselves. An exhaust system that has new ways and means of lasting longer A Delcotron generator that keeps reserve power built up in your battery, helping it to reach a vigorous old age. And a wash-and dry ventilating system that helps guard against rusting of sheet metal under the doors. Want to hear more?
